John W. Burley belonged to black tribe brother of Pete? was about

 Had a daughter who married John Westbrooke father of Henry W. & they lived where the time when he fixed Grandpa P's house on farm. John Westbrooke was not so dark as Henry. John O. B. was a big heavy-set man & rather dark & broad shouldered.

Grandpa Grandma Pa & Welltha(?) went to funeral of a Freeman(?) - Sanford(?) Burley, a young man who died near Desert Lake. It was after Pa had his leg broken. May have been John O. Burley's son who married the Mayo woman.

They settled in Virginia, then moved further south, still followed by misfortune, when finally the last member, a daughter, approached her death bed and called a neighbor, Mrs. Thompson, giving her the letter and related its history for more than one thousand years. OBITUARY.

ANDREW WHAN.

On December 24th, Andrew Whan passed away to eternal rest at his home in Mountain Grove. Deceased was taken ill about a year ago, and suffered much during that time, being stricken with blindness at the last. Mr. Whan had been a resident of Mountain Grove for a number of years. He came from Australia when a young man, and settled at Desert Lake. He went thence to Mountain Grove, where he permanently resided. Mr. Whan will be missed by a large circle of friends, as he was an honest, upright, religious man, being a member of the Presbyterian faith for years. He was a farmer and had dealings with the surrounding community and was well liked by all. His wife predeceased him four years ago. He leaves a large family, namely, seven daughters and five sons. The daughters are: Mrs. N. Charlton, of Harrowsmith; Mrs. J. Martin, Holleford; Mrs. H. V. Lawlor, Toronto; Mrs. G. Mills, Cobourg; Mrs. J. Smith, Picton; also Mrs. Albertson, Desert Lake, and Mrs. H. Timmerman, Sharbot Lake. The five sons are: James, of Holleford; Samuel, John and Freeman, of Sharbot Lake, and Andrew, at home. The funeral service was held at the house and his remains were taken to Olden for interment. In politics Mr. Whan was a staunch Conservative.

Antenuptial Thrift.

"Why do you insist on carrying that umbrella?" asked the bridegroom.

Mr. Burleigh, Yours of April recd. I hope you will kindly excuse my neglect. You will notice we spell our name Burley. I believe our fore fathers are the same.
I inquired of my father and our branch also come from Ernestown. My fathers name is Benjamin and my grand father Joseph.
The latter was a carpenter by trade. In our family there are few if any early deaths Grandfather who reared a hundred at time of his death. My father was born in Musby Township near Trenton. I believe, and come to Pa Ed. Co. when I was born thirty four years ago. There are no Catholics in our family that we know of.

My life has all been spent in this county. I own one of eight children all living.
I have met many people bearing our name, and all earlier part of their family also come from Crumstown.
So it looks as tho we are all from the same family.
I hope this may enlighten you of the information you

Dear Mr Burleigh, yours recd. some time ago. I have been to see my father and we had a long talk. This Joseph who came from U.S. with John and Freemont. had a son Samuel who married a Nancy Bennett Joseph my grandfather was their eldest son. Father remembers these uncles John & Freemont and George these would be brothers to my grandfather.
My grandfather married Anna Slenders and there is a very large family all of whom I can get in touch with. My father is the eldest. We have no records to prove this but from the in formation I have received I have written down for you.

It will take me some time to get these ages births and marriages as fathers family is well scattered around many are in U.S. Let me hear from you again and tell me just what information you require and I shall be pleased to comply with your wish

Yours very truly

B E Burley

1. Your grandfather Daniel may have had other brothers and sisters — Lewis, Cyrus, Freeman, John, Cornelius, James, Sarah who married a Taylor and Eliza who married a Brown. Did you ever hear of these?

I remember distinctly of seeing Cornelius and hearing my Father call him Uncle, and I often heard my Father speak of Freeman; but I cannot recall any of these other names.

2. Lewis had a wife Mary. They had a daughter Ann Lupton. Did you ever hear of them?

No.

3. Did you ever hear that your great grandfather's name was Joseph and his wife was Sarah Ann?

I wouldn't doubt that I have heard that; but haven't anything to prove these facts.

4. Have you ever heard of Wilton Village in Connecticut, or all my memories?

I have heard of Wilton Village — it almost seems I have heard my Father speak of this and Bath and Newburgh.

5. Your son (the one who brought me to your home last Sunday,) wrote me a letter - 17 years ago.
In this letter he said, "Joseph who came from U.S. had a son Samuel who married Nancy Bennett." Is this true?

My Father's Mother was Nancy Bennett. and her husband's name was Sam.
They both died at the age of 84 - but five years apart. I remember going to my GrandMother's funeral. I walked there - a distance of 14 miles.

MOORE City, WASH.

Aug 22. 1978

Dear Cousin:

Thank you so very much for the Freeman Family story. It is very much appreciated and is very interesting. I'm sorry for the delay in thanking you but as you can see by the new address we have moved. Moore City is a very small town but has a large school district & Dick will be the new Jr. High Principal here. Moore City is only four miles from Yakima and Yakima has a pop. of about 50,000 and a very active Genealogy Society & they have a pretty good library. I just hope they are ready for the "Oreville Flash" and can hardly wait to get in there and do some research. I'm still trying to get the house organized ^{and} have decided to wait until after school starts to really get back into the swing of genealogy. The Society & Library are open 10 to five every day during the week & 2 to five on weekends.

I heard from David Burley in Shreveport, Ohio & his increasing copies of his Family Sheets. I'm a little confused as he states that his Uncle Burley was the son of James Burley & Mary Peters. and then James B. was the son of ^{I think} Joseph Burley & Jamima Brown - Maria - Burley's Daughter. According to Maria - Joseph Burley's son of Mary Peters + #2 Sally E. Hawley. I think James the same person as he

Two male Surleys marry two ^{different} ^{females} ^{named} Mary Peters?
Miller did not list a Urish B. ^{as being} ^{for either} a child of James or ~~Joseph~~ ^{John} Surley. Please straighten me out. Miller has no info for James except that he was born June 20, 1794 -

The following is a brief outline of what David Surley wrote about William James Surley, the son of Urish. He came down from Canada - fought in the Civil War as a substitute for another person. With the money from the Army, he bought a farm in Montgomery town, Ohio in 1864 + in 1866, he sold the farm. He was in the Army from Nov. 1864 until July 4, 1865 when he deserted at New Orleans. Changed his mind + was mustered out Nov 21 1865 at San Antonio, Texas.
He was 5'5 3/4" tall, brown eyes + black hair + dark complexioned. David's grandfather told him that he brought his parents Urish + Emily Surley to Ohio but he can't find anything on them, as being there. Do you know they remained in ~~East~~ ^{East} Ernesttown? + if buried there? David said his father also has told him that from the stories his father told him William James was sort of a roughneck + a fighter. He is not seen when William James died but thinks between 1873-1874 as his wife Mary E.
Miller remarried a A. B. Smith who was supposedly a drunk + he left + and she remarried a Benjamin all they are buried together in the same cemetery.

Also according to the 1851 census of Canada Uriah lived next to Cyrus Burley - ~~your~~ your Cyrus. Joseph Burley's son Cyrus or whose Cyrus???? Help Help!!!

I also have some info from Maurin Burley that the professional he knew found. All I have to do is find the letter & will send what he found.
I found my sugar bowl lid in Kelly's bedroom last week so that should tell you how organized I am!! I think I have a box of genealogy info in every room in the house. We bought a house in Moose and it is a plain three bedroom with no extras. So far the only place I have come up with for my genealogy is to hang a cage from the ceiling!!!

The first two weeks we were here the temps didn't get under 95°. Now we are in a cool spell & had a 39° one morning this week. Fall is definitely in the air.

Well had best close & go play housewife. Thanks again for the Tupper History. Write soon. Bye for now

Sincerely

Corquess Cousin Vernon

Dear Doctor Burling,

Please forgive me for not writing sooner, but it has been a very busy Spring this year. I had to finish my University courses and prepare our house for our new arrival. My wife gave birth to our first child - a son - Andrew Scott (my wife's maiden name was Scott)

(2) He has certainly kept the family occupied since his arrival.

Thank you for the information about our ancestors. I plan to record it with the essay I had prepared in December. I have become truly interested in this geneology business. Perhaps I may drop in and see you on one of my infrequent trips to Montreal to see my wife's relatives.

③ In an early letter you mentioned that John (1730-1775) Joseph (1784-?) may be buried in Ernestown Township. Do you know where the graves are? And, would it be possible do you think to obtain a rubbing from the headstones.

My cousin Raymond Burley (son of Glen Harry Benjamin) who just graduated from York U. from a 4-year Theatre Arts course is presently doing research for a documentary film on the "United Empire Loyalists." He has followed my research of our family with interest. I mentioned all that you had written me - so he may be nosing around that country side during the next few weeks.

I hope you are well and that we may meet someday. Again, thank you for your help in tracing my family line. I will look forward to your next letter;

Sincerely
Bernard M. Burley

I do remember a visit one time of a very sick old man who was Dad's uncle, a bro. of Charlotte Burleigh & I remember my mother asking Dad how come that his mother's name was Burleigh that her brother's surname was Peters. I believe some still live in Impharea I also believe there was some connection with the Grants at Belbrook but I never knew. Dad always kept in touch with a Cousin Heckler who married a John French East. She had one daughter moving to Camden - Georgia at least not who still lives in. Dec. 18, 1972,

Dear Do.,

Replied 1.1.73 asking more info.

Your name was given me by Aileen Miller, daughter of the late Carl Burley (my great uncle) Apparently, uncle Carl had taken some information regarding our family history from you. However, there are several gaps in the record and there are no dates available.

I am presently doing a geneology study of my family as a project towards my degree at York University. My interest in this field has been greatly aroused. I am interested in finding more information.

I have traced the line back from myself (i) Vernon Ross Burley (ii) Harry Burley (brother of Carl)
(iii) Benjamin Sanders Burley (iv) Joseph Burley.
(v) Samuel Burley (vi) ?

② I know the family landed at Crnesttown via Montreal from Pennsylvania - from England - from Holland.

I would be interested in corresponding with you concerning this subject.

Yours Sincerely,

Bernard M. Burley.

THE BURLEY FAMILY TREE

The following story is as I remember it being told to me by my father, Benjamin Burley, and my grandfather, Joseph Burley.

Of the Burley family, there was a clan living in the Netherlands - now know as Holland - the country being a possession of Spain, at the time when Spain was one of the most powerful countries in Europe. Being persecuted on account of their religion, they fled to England.

Years later, under the powerful Puritan rule of Oliver Comwell, they were again persecuted and fled to the New World, following the landing of the Pilgrim Fathers. Later, they were an established family and prospered well in Pennsylvania.

Things went well until the time the Americans were gaining independence from Britain. They refused to take up arms and fight against their mother country and hence were looked upon as aliens. The American government confiscated all their property and in despair they appealed to Britain and Canada for help. With hundreds of other families they migrated to Canada. Hence they were knows as the United Empire Loyalists. For some unknown reason, while residing in Pennsylvania, they were known as the Pennsylvania Dutch.

Our branch of the family landed at Ernesttown and are not listed in the U.E.L. Book of the Bay of Quinte. I have no record of the first two generations, though the record could be obtained through Dr. Herbert Burley of Bath, Ontario.

The first family of Burleys landed at Ernesttown were seven brothers and five sisters. (For some unknown reason, two brothers and a sister refused to stay and returned to Pennsylvania.) In the last few years, I have been able to trace their descendants from the book "The Burleys of Ipswich".

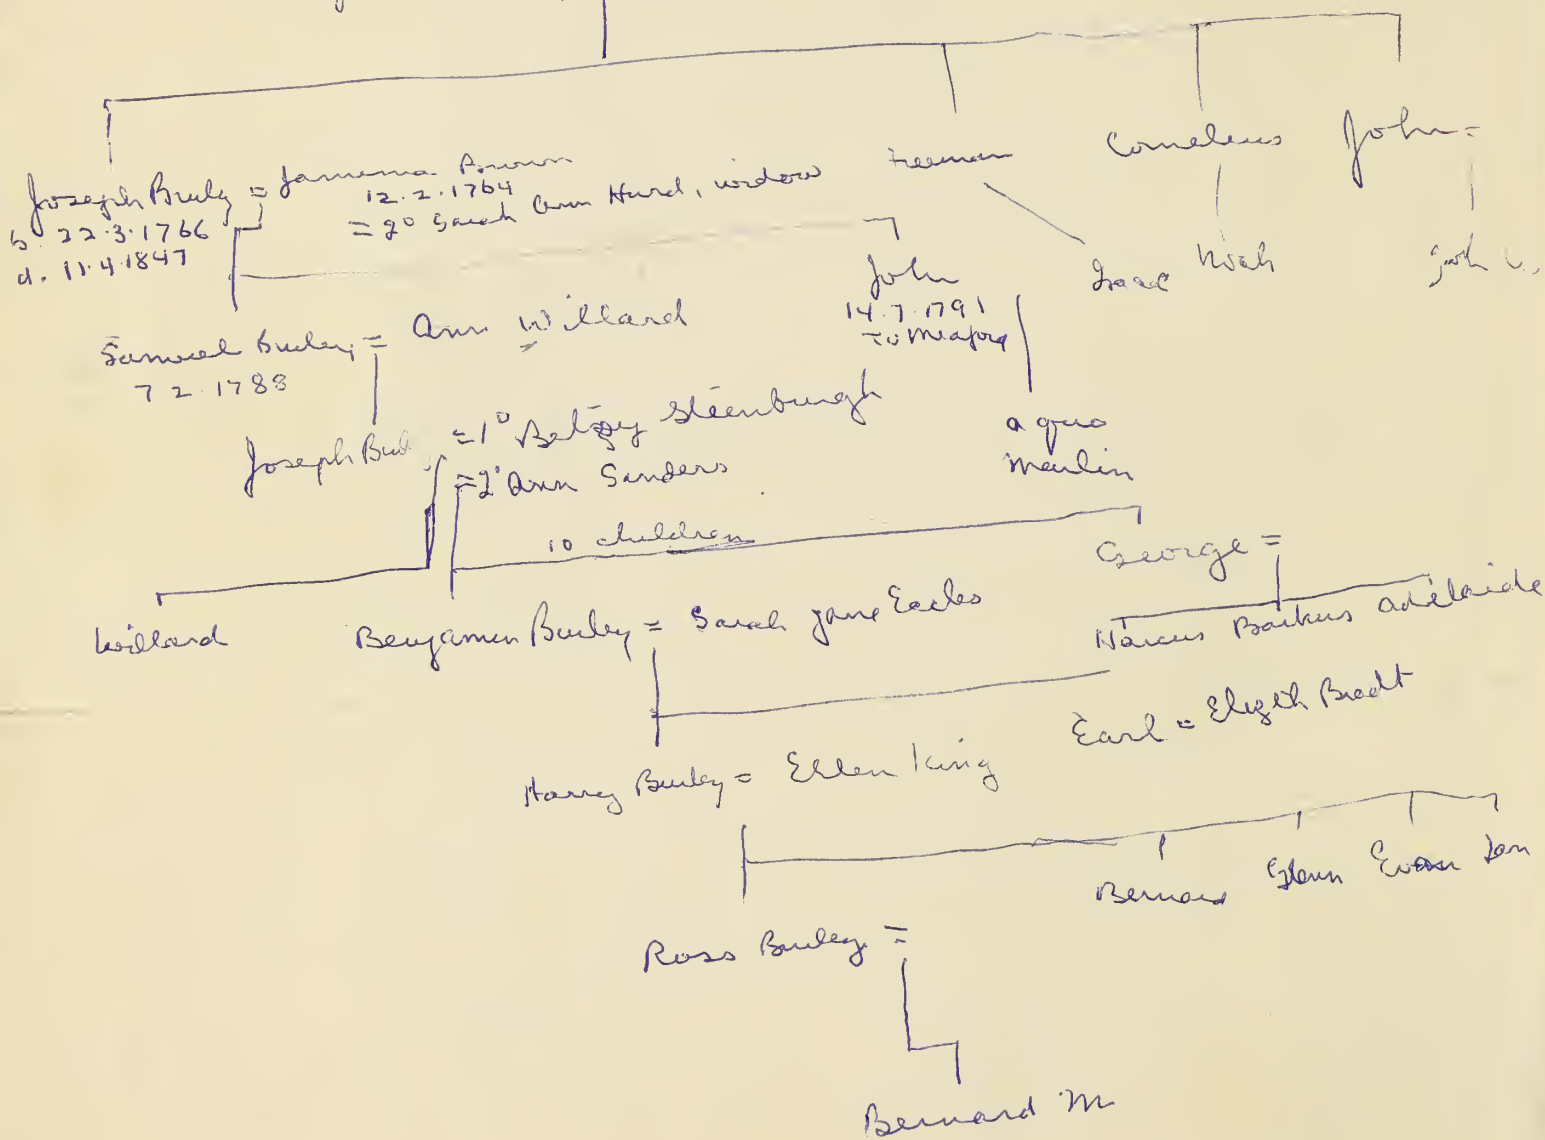

During one winter, supplies didn't reach them from Montreal owing to the freezing of rivers and lakes, and they suffered from starvation. Of the family of John George Burley, consisting of ten boys and two girls, only four survived the awful winter. They lie buried in the old Loyalist Cemetery. One of the early grandmothers had taught the Indian women how to use different dyes along with coloured beads to decorate moccasins and jackets; and just about the time when almost every shred of food was gone, an old Indian chief landed in with a 700 lb. bull moose and saved the colony.

As told by my dad, great-grandfather Samuel Burley, with his wife, Ann Williard, moved to Murray township. They raised a family of ten children, my grandfather Joseph Burley being the eldest. I can remember another brother who had a family of three whose names never appear in the family tree - namely, Marcus, Barcus, and Adelaide. This brother's name was John.

Joseph Burley Family

John O. Burley belonged to black tribe brother of Pete? Was about dad was 14 or 15, lived somewhere near Desert Lake (where Theodore Huffman owns).
 Had a daughter who married John Westbrook father of Henry W. & they lived where Henry Dixon now lives. Dad remembers seeing John O. there, an old man, at the time when he fixed Grandpa P's house on farm. John Westbrook was not so dark as Henry. John O. B. was a big heavy-set man & rather dark & broad shouldered.

Grandpa Grandma Pa & Welltha(?) went to funeral of a Freeman(?) Sanford(?) Burley, a young man who died near Desert Lake. It was after Pa had his leg broken. May have been John O. Burley's son who married the Dugo woman.

The dependant, Mrs. Anne Burley, aged 61, is living in a rented home in the village of Camden East. Home conditions quite satisfactory.

The dependant appears to be in reasonably good health.

Living with her, at the present time, is a married son, Edwin Burley; he is separated from his wife. He is employed at the Napanee Iron Works, boarding at home and paying board at the rate of $5.00 per week. Also, in the same home is another son, Daniel Burley, single, boarding with his mother and paying board at $5.00 per week. He is employed at the Strathcona Paper Mills.

Assignment of pay is being received from son Alfred, C-305; David, single, at present Overseas, official number C-334, had assigned his pay to his mother

Dear Dr. Burleigh,

Forgive me for not writing sooner. I had to wait for the return of my essay from my professor and then my brother took some time in making copies of my late Uncle Carl's letter.

Enclosed you will find a copy of the letter I received from Carl's daughter.
There are several things about it - you may be able to help ② me with. First - what is this book "The Burleys of Ipswich"? Have you ~~heard~~ heard of it? Do you know where to find it?

Secondly, Ernesttown is mentioned in Carl's + your letter. Exactly where is Ernesttown? Are there cemeteries there with headstones which might help me.

One other source my professor suggested to me, where micro-films at the University of census' from the early + middle eighteen-hundreds. I hope to do this further research once my present courses are complete.

I hope the information I have gathered, and what you may have discovered, will shed some light on the "Burley's" early history.

I shall await your reply.

Sincerely,

Bernard M. Burley

Dear sir, I have heard of your book written in regard to the family history of United Empire Loyalists as a small girl my teacher asked me to ask my parents if I was a descendant of the U. E. L. and learned that I was; My father's name was Richard Bander and his mother's name was Charlotte Burleigh & Dad was born & died in Verona area. I was wondering where I could obtain one of your books and the price. Sincerely

Dear sir: your letter recd and thanks for ans. so soon. I don't know if you can connect up my disappointed efforts at the family tree but hope I have been of some help to you Dad as a young man was working in the lumber Camp of North Frontenac where he met my mother + they were married in about 6 weeks (after meeting he settled on Lots #45 Barrie top at Eastern end I forget the Conn. but my oldest Bro Arthur had built a few Cottages on lots 6 & 7 & owned Dads place also so since his passing his wife has deeded Dads Farm to the Crown to be used as a non profit camping ground for non profit organizations such as Girl Guides, Boy Scouts etc and as an access to the public to Massassagon Lake which takes in about a mile of shoreline. There is a plaque in memory of my Bro. Arthur Bander + my parents. Dept of Lands + Forests have demolished the old house which made my sisters feel very bad but it had been let go still I hated to look at it much less live in it But last time I went by I saw they had a plastic put up & looked like they were building a monument inside. I think the unveiling will be sometime this spring.

I am inclosing cheque for one of your books. If you are out this I pay call in or come any time. In the summer we are away a lot on weekends as we have a cottage on Massassagon Lake & both of us grew up back there, its home to us, so as long as the both are well enough health wise we want to enjoy it. In seeing your letter signed "your off Cousin," reminded me of a saying I heard a few yrs back² that struck me as kind of funny as I had never heard it before. we were talking about someone being distantly related and she said, "Oh they are just shirttail relatives."

There was a distant cousin of Charlie's lived at Bath, "Everett Switzer" who was tracing his family tree & Charlie's grandmothers were sisters. we haven't seen or heard of him for sometime now. Charlie worked at Strathcona Paper Mill & rescued ~~and~~ an old record book from away back from going in the beaters.
It has Copied Cases from the time the Court was changed to Kingston from being to gether at Napabee. There are old mortgages & its very interesting reading. I can't imagine anyone discarding it.

Hope to meet you someday
Sincerely,

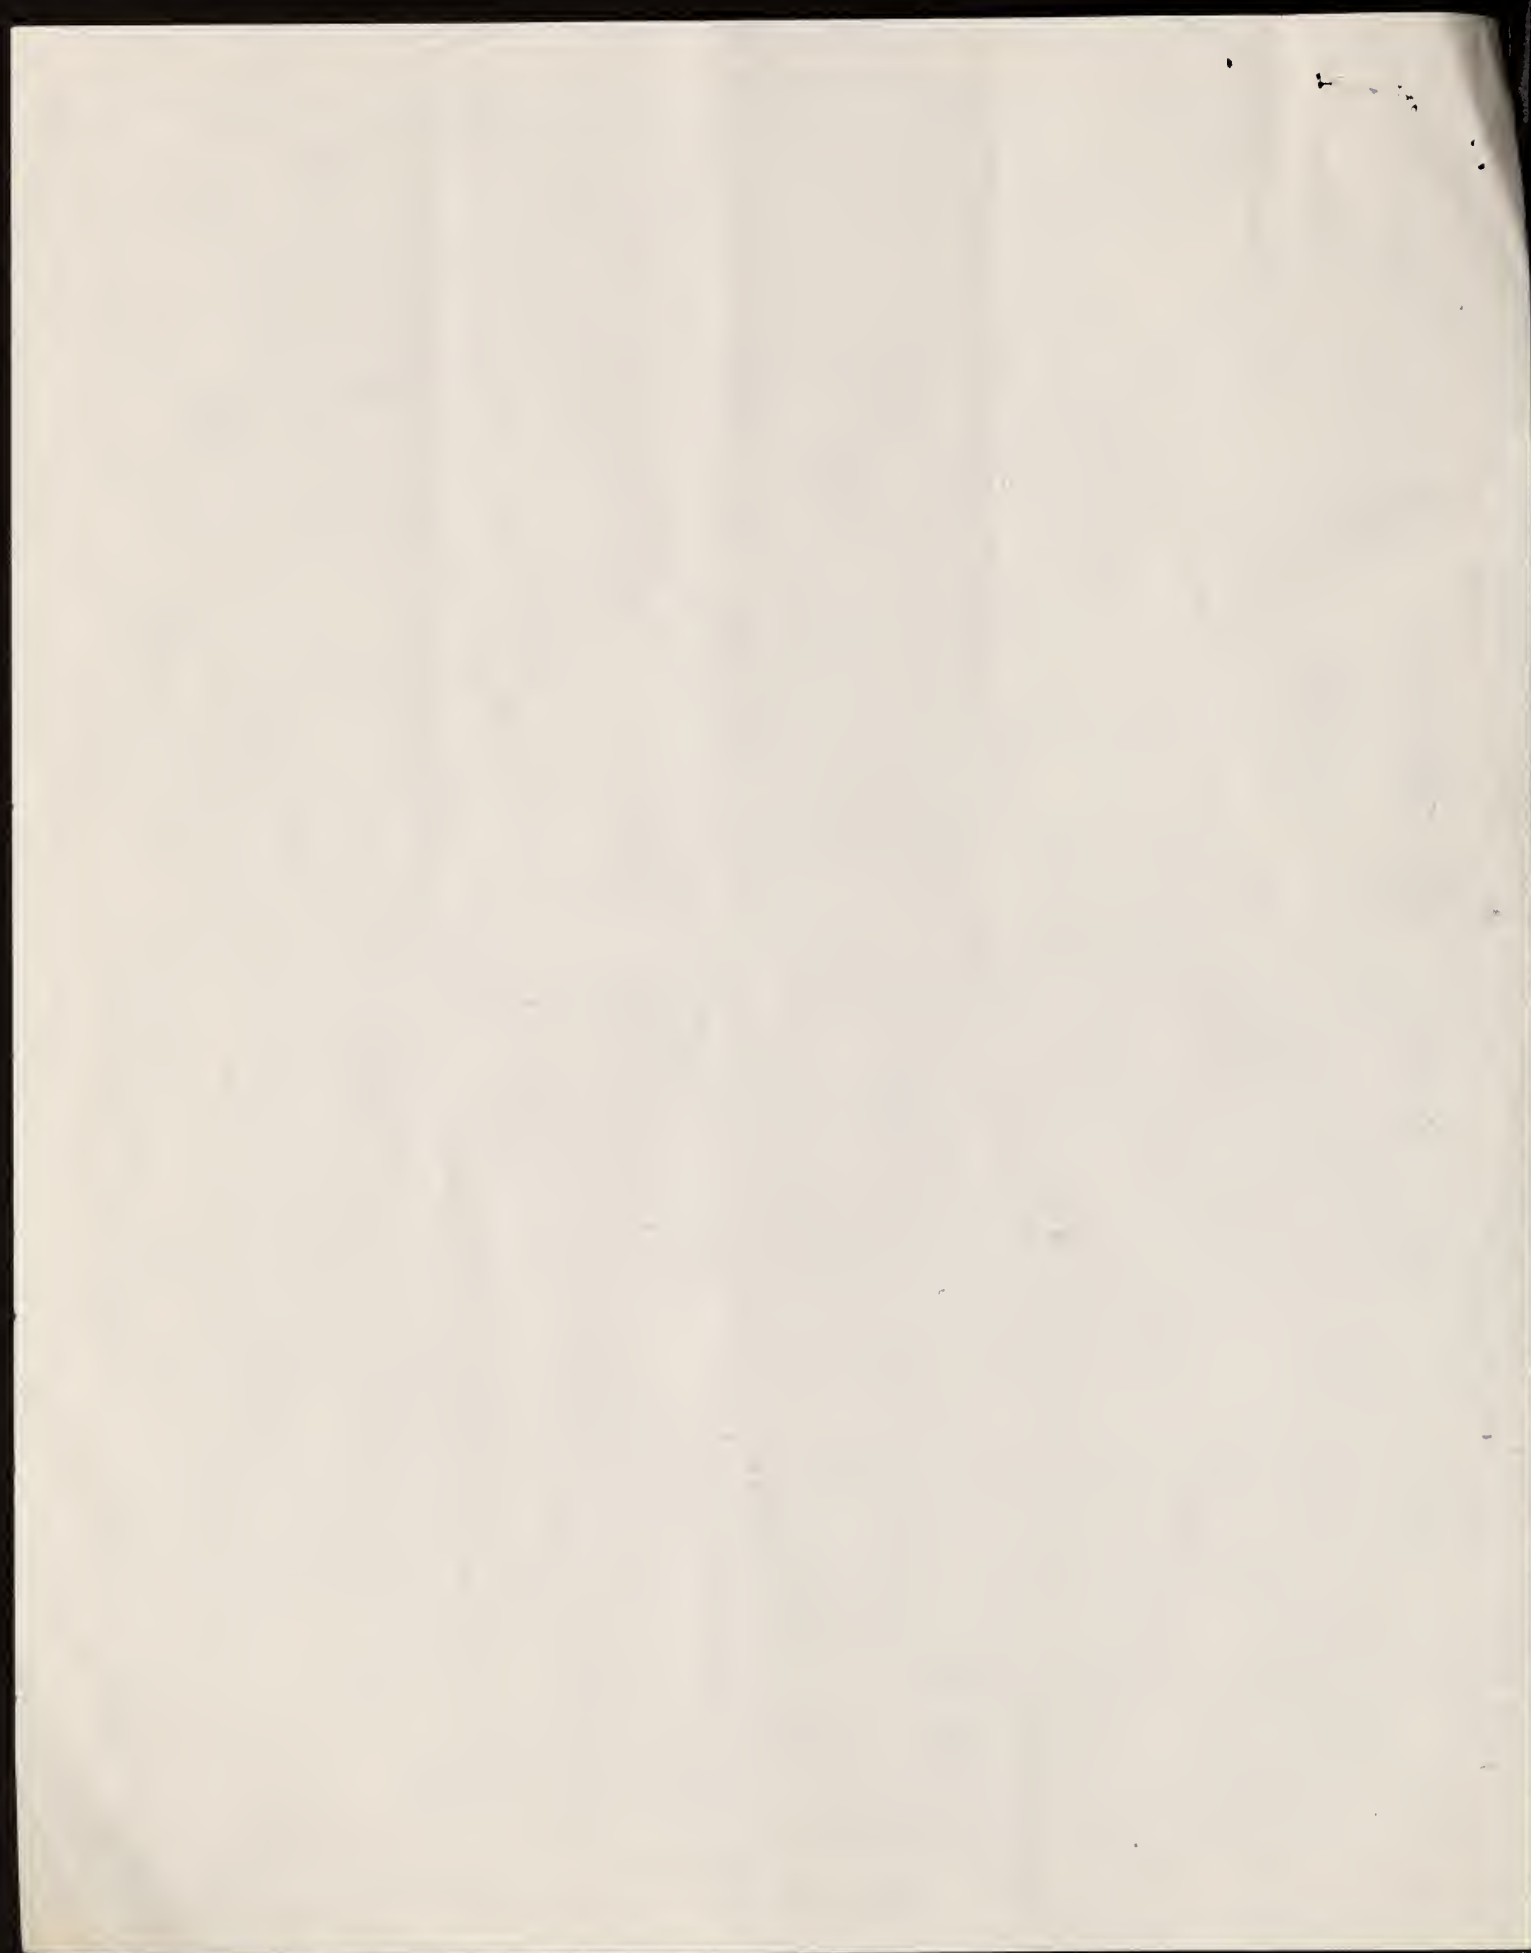

Eleanor Felieler

Dear sir, - Recd the book & your letter and have been trying to find time to get at reading it but as yet have just read passages here & there thru it but expect I am going to enjoy it.
I have thought of some more names I forgot Dad also had a brother Samuel who married a ^{maid} Mary. I still hear from a son of his Elmer of Burnaby B.C.
~~Elmer~~ John, Hulda & Rhoda went out west when I was a baby Mary about 1907 and settled around Hays there.
John came back to Verona & died married also I forgot to say that Dad was married the second time to a childhood sweetheart was married in Sept as his 80th birthday was coming in Feb 9th. She was a ^{ms} Mrs Chas. Bader & Dad is buried in Verona Cemetery beside her & her first husband I would be inclined to believe that Charlotte (my grandmother) would be a daughter of Louise before she married a Peter as I have a sister Louise (still living) Dad & my younger brother were named by my oldest bro. Arthur Eleanor (me) & Egerton after Egerton (person) you mentioned Iray Bader. I knew them & still keep in touch with one of his daughters but oddly enough he was more closely related to my mother than my father

And Iris's ^{15th} wife was a sister to my first husband's mother (a Circle wht) my father's story to me as a child when my teacher told me to ask my parents if we were C. E. S. descendants was that a mother & 2 sons came over & settled in Kingston Area thence the two Bander branches. Iris's father was a distant Cousin of my father & lived about 4 or 5 miles from us. He was married to my mother's Aunt, & believe a ~~mother~~ sister to her mother. I believe Ira was the oldest son & lived at Harrowsmith Eliza married Joe Storms lived near Burton Artina married a McCullough of Kingston, a Minister lived at Odessa, his son was not a F. M. Minister in Kingston ~~and~~ Dorothy married Richard Sabcock he was also a F. M. Minister. ^{the deed in} Child birth and John Nelson (same name as my grandfather) married a Navy Children second wife & had several other names I don't know if I remember all their names Hubert, Manfred Lena, Morris & I believe Albert.
I remember my mother talking about some of her father's sisters being married to a man but we never kept in touch after Dad's parents died. He didn't visit at Verona much & I was very small then but I remember my older sisters telling of driving out with the horses & wagon & they visited at these places on the way It has been always my ambition to write a book but don't expect I'll get at it now I have too many projects on the go. But one newly known. My health hasn't been very good for the last 10 yrs but I was able 3 once again to take a trip to Florida at Kmartime which a couple yrs ago I wouldn't have undertaken. I've went to Maryland to visit friends & I never thought I'd live to get home so guess my work isn't finished yet my husband will be 79. Come Aug 30th and is looking forward to making maple syrup on a neighbours place on top of Basswood hill. Spent in this spare time now making traps corner shelves etc. by the furnace. It's so nice to be able to keep ones hands busy.

Sincerely
 Your off Cousin
